

Lets Talk About Racism

Lets recognize and celebrate our differences! Knowing that racism is built into every part of our society is first. To build a future that has justice for all we must recognize the systems in our society that dehumanize and degrade others.

How am I different? -----

How diverse is my community? -----

Why is it important to have a diverse community? -----

What is prejudice? What can I do if I recognize prejudice? -----

Systems in our society that dehumanize and degrade others:
